WHAT IS VOCATIONAL REBAHILITATION?

The Samish Nation Vocational Rehabilitation Program assists American Indians with disabilities to prepare for, achieve and maintain employment. Services are custom designed to fit each individuals needs.

GOAL STATEMENT

Operate a culturally appropriate Vocational Rehabilitation program that will provide services to American Indians/Alaskan Natives with disabilities who reside in the Samish Indian Nation's service delivery area, consistent with their individual strengths, resources, priorities, concerns, abilities, capabilities, and informed choices, so that they may prepare for and engage in gainful employment, including self-employment, telecommuting, and business ownership.

Services we can provide to help gain employment
(partial list...)

- ⊕ Career counseling
- ⊕ Job training
- ⊕ Provide specialized equipment
  - ⊕ Medical appointments
  - ⊕ Interpreters for the deaf
  - ⊕ Mental health services
  - ⊕ Drug & alcohol services
  - ⊕ Job placement services
  - ⊕ Job retention services

Confidentiality and trust are very important to our program. Except where required by law, all information disclosed in counseling is not shared with anyone or any other programs unless a release form is signed.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Our program can help any enrolled Native American who wants to work and:

1. Has a documented disability.
2. Is an enrolled member of a federally recognized tribe.
3. Resides in our 5 county service area: Whatcom, Skagit, San Juan, Island or Snohomish county.
4. Has a disability that is keeping her/him from having or keeping a job.
5. Has a desire to work and is employable.
